HINDLE HOUSE

Near Amelia Court House, Amelia County, Virginia

Owner: Miss Selina HindleDate of erection: c. 1780Present condition: GoodDescription:

Frame, two stories above a high basement. Roof gabled. In plan there is a hall across the front with a pair of rooms behind. One of these is treated with a fine paneled end which employs full-height Ionic pilasters to frame the doorways and mantel. The detail is all well designed in the Palladian style. The rest of the house has simpler trim of the period. The entrance doors are notable for their great height, being over 9 feet high.
